 Daughter (Mrs Chan's Daughter)

Story: From time to time, Mrs Chan would see some Indonesians going in and out of a flat, and suspected that it was being used as a dormitory for domestic helpers. One day, she posted the pictures on a social media platform, with a caption asking whether she should report the matter.

Mrs Chan's post sparked a heated discussion among others. One of the comments incited other residents' hatred towards Indonesians. Mrs Chan and her daughter also discussed the post. In the end, someone left a comment to clarify and Mrs Chan deleted the post afterwards.
