

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES AWARENESS SURVEY 2021

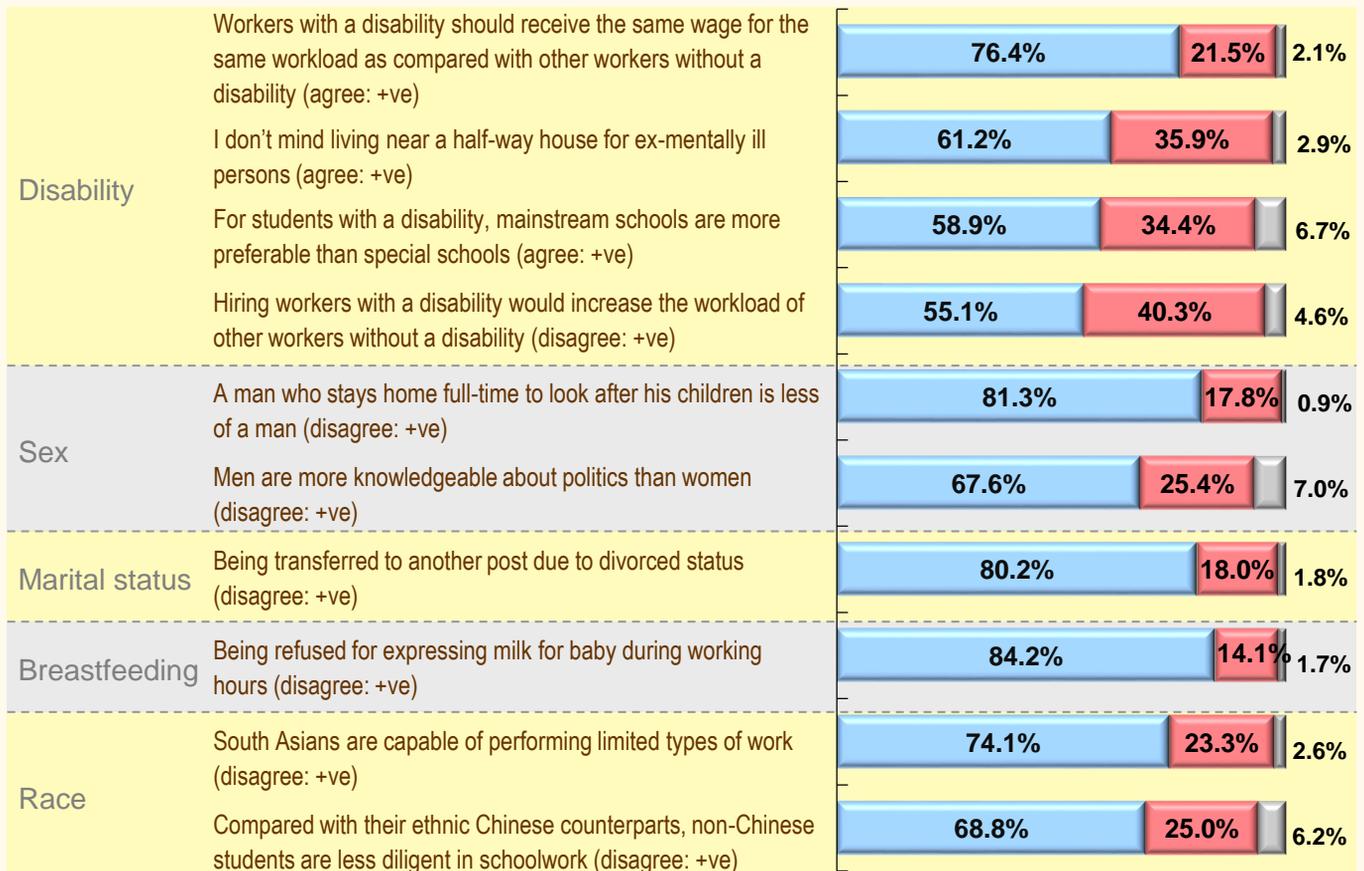

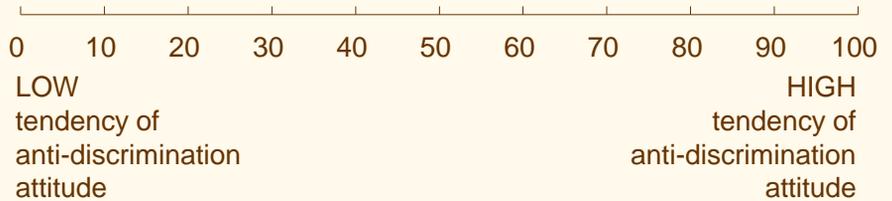

Objective & Methodology

- The survey aimed to gauge public perception about equal opportunities (EO) awareness and the EOC's work
- Telephone interviews during late-February to early-April 2021
- 1 501 respondents aged 15 or above
- Response rate: 41.7%

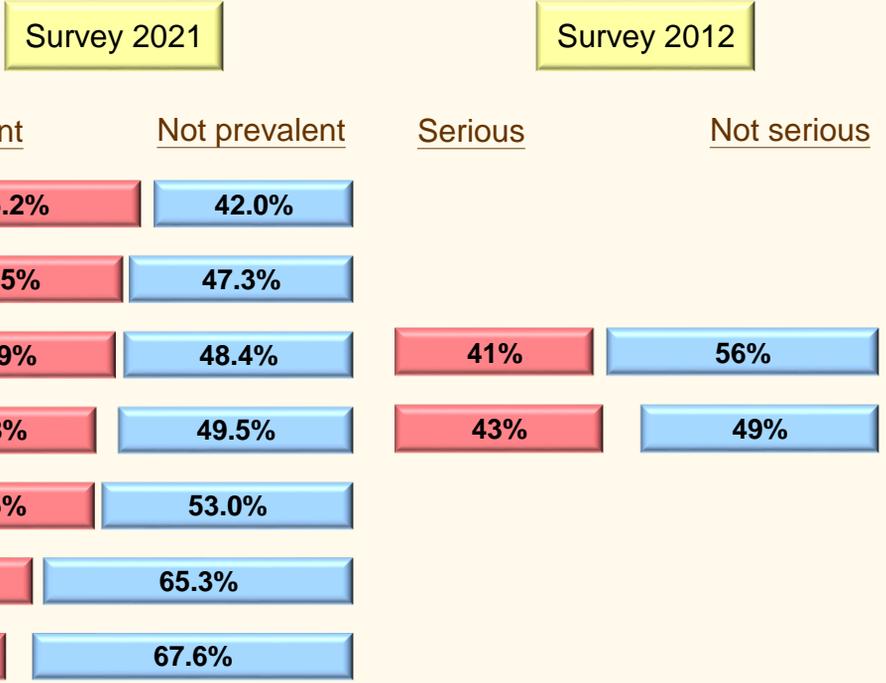

Overall Anti-discrimination Attitude

- Public's attitude towards 10 examples about discrimination or EO was calculated into an overall index

■ Positive attitude towards EO
■ Negative attitude towards EO
■ Don't know / no comment / hard to say / Refused to answer

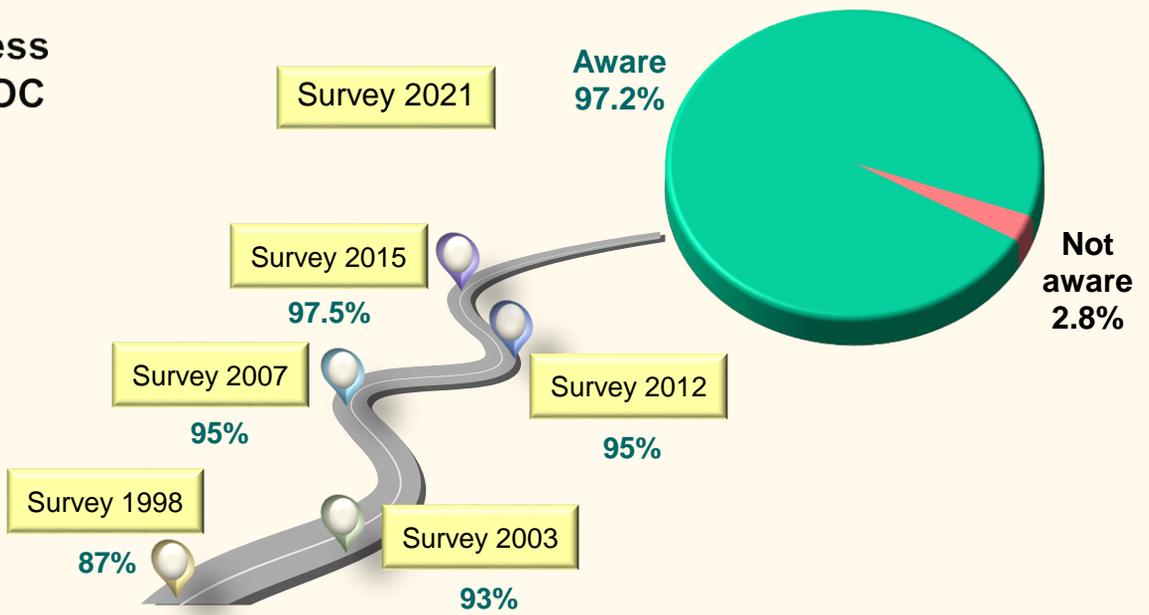

Public's Perceived Prevalence of Different Aspects of Discrimination in HK

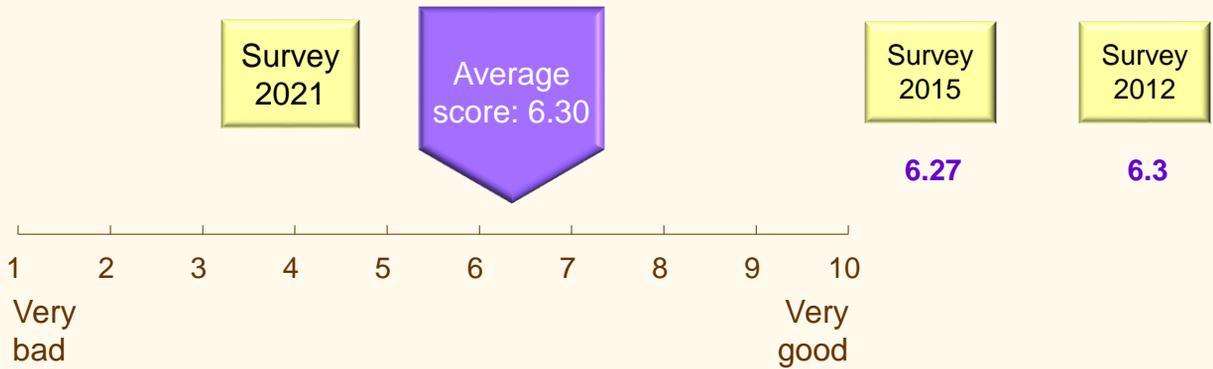

Experience of Discrimination / Harassment during the 12 months before enumeration

Awareness of the EOC

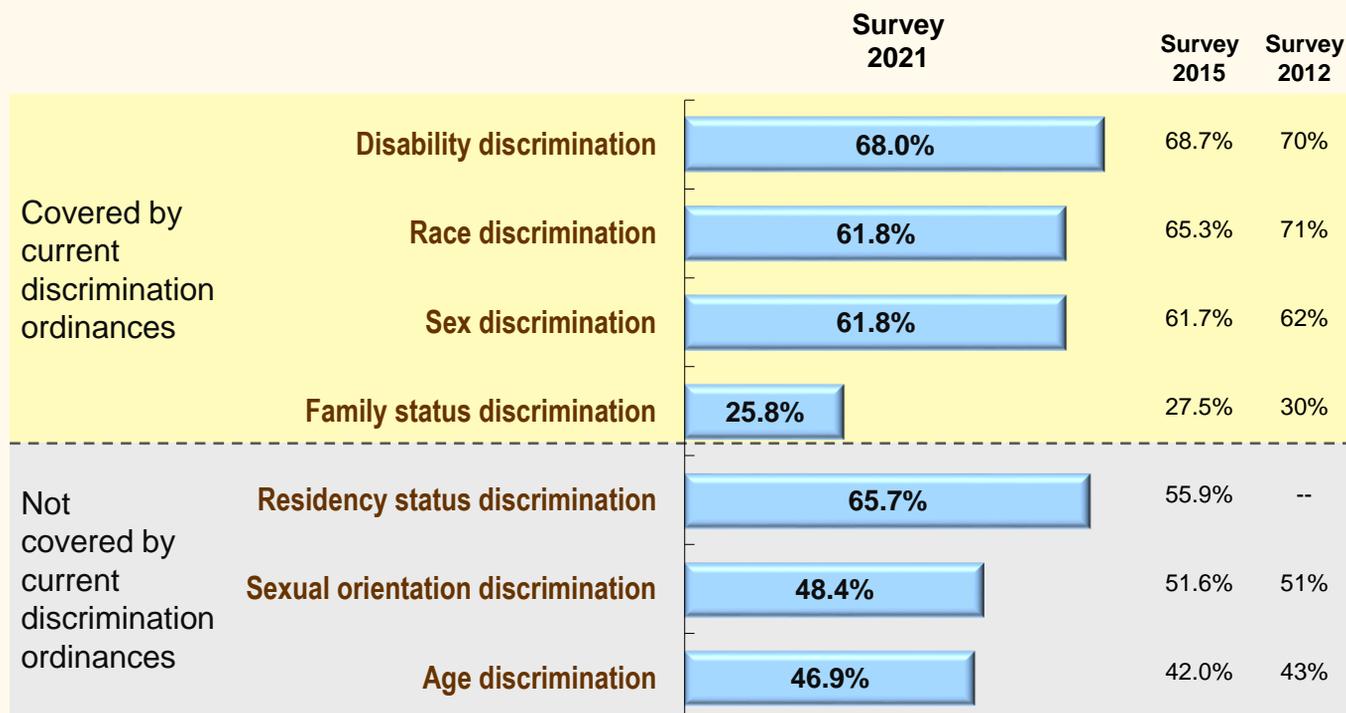

Evaluation on the Overall Performance of the EOC

Agreement Level on the Statements which Described the Work of EOC

Awareness of the Current Discrimination Ordinances in HK

Perceived Importance Level of the Forthcoming EO Works

