

Seminar
Gender Equality and Gender Respect –
Media and Societal Culture, Where Do We Go from Here?

Ms. Clara Law Ying-tsz

Ms. Clara Law is the campaign manager of the Amnesty International Hong Kong (AIHK). AIHK is an international NGO which works to promote human rights, covering both local and global human rights issues. She was formerly the centre-in-charge of the Hong Kong Federation of Women's Centres. Her work included providing counseling and mutual support groups to women facing marital crisis, and facilitating their social participation so as to advocate for gender equality. Ms. Law is particularly concerned about recognition of women's work, especially unpaid work.

Abstract of Ms. Law's Talk

Awareness of 'Gender Stereotyping'

Reflecting on the impacts of social culture and norms on women's participation in the community through her own experiences in working with women, Ms. Law seeks to enhance women's roles in the community and boost their participation through gender sensitive practice.