

Seminar
Gender Equality and Gender Respect –
Media and Societal Culture, Where Do We Go from Here?

Dr. Agnes Law Koon-chui

Dr. Agnes Law obtained her Bachelor Degree (Hon.) from the Chinese University of Hong Kong, Master Degree in Public Policy from Wellington University in New Zealand, and Doctoral Degree in Politics from the University of Hong Kong. She is a veteran registered social worker. She was a former Head of the Division of Social Studies, City University of Hong Kong. Prior to her academic career, she held a number of senior positions in non-governmental organizations in Hong Kong. Dr. Law has a long track record in community services providing her professional contributions to governmental and non-governmental organizations in Hong Kong as well as in mainland China. She formerly served as Chairperson of the Hong Kong Social Workers Association, Member of Women's Commission and Member of Guangdong Committee of the 7th – 9th CPPCC. She was also Chairperson, Professor and Doctoral Student Supervisor of the Social Work Research and Education Center of the Sun Yat-sen (Zhongshan) University in Guangzhou, China. Her research interests are extensive including studies on youth, women, community care, social welfare policies and development of services. She is currently Member of Equal Opportunities Commission and Deputy Director of Centre of Holistic Teaching and Learning, Hong Kong Baptist University.